James Blunt – Another year

```
Lam  Fa  Do  Sol/Si

Lam                 Fa
Taps on in the bathroom
Do                   Sol/Si
And outside I heard the neighbours coming home
Lam             Fa
Inside we turn the lights on
Do                     Sol/Si
Close the curtains, wonder where the time has gone
Rem              Sol
And your mother's in the kitchen
Do                   Mi
No, I'm not coming home for Christmas
Lam              Fa
I'm just here to take one last look at your face

Fa                   Do
So say goodbye, another year's gone by
Sol                        Mim
You know I had the time of my life
Rem                     Lam
Sweet child of mine, don't judge these tears I'm crying
Fa                   Do
I know the world can be unkind
Sol                        Lam
I hope you have the time of your life

Lam              Fa
Angels in the window
Do                   Sol/Si
Same old songs are playing on the radio
Lam              Fa
The fire slowly dwindles
Do                         Sol/Si
And downstairs she'll be drinking on her own
Rem              Sol
I read the letters that you've written
Do                   Mi
Oh, wish I was there for Christmas
Lam              Fa
I just came to take one last look at your face

Fa                   Do
So say goodbye, another year's gone by
Sol                        Mim
You know I had the time of my life
Rem                     Lam
Sweet child of mine, don't judge these tears I'm crying
Fa                   Do
I know the world can be unkind
Sol                        Lam
Now go and have the time of your life

Sol               Fa
Oh, settle down
Rem                     Lam
Tomorrow's sunshine's begging to come out
Sol               Fa
Tonight I've found
Rem                     Lam
The things I can live with and live without
```

Fa                    Do
So say goodbye, another year's gone by
Sol                       Mim
You know I had the time of my life
Rem                   Lam
Sweet child of mine, don't judge these tears I'm crying
Fa                    Do
I know the world can be unkind
Sol                       Lam
But have a happy Christmas, goodnight
```
