Jess Glynne - Thursday

Lam                 Sol
I won't wear makeup on Thursday
                Fa
I'm sick of covering up
            Lam                 Sol
I'm tired of feeling so broken
                 Fa
I'm tired of falling in love
               Lam
Sometimes I'm shy and I'm anxious
                Sol
Sometimes I'm down on my knees
              Fa                      Fa
Sometimes I try to embrace all my insecurities
                   Lam               Sol
So I won't wear makeup on Thursday
               Fa
'Cause who I am is enough
Fa                                          Sol
And there are many things that I could change so slightly
    Lam                                   Mim
But why would I succumb to something so unlike me?
Fa                             Sol          Lam
I was always taught to just be myself
              Sol
Don't change for anyone

Do
I wanna laugh, I don't wanna cry
Sol                                   Fa
Don't want these tears inside my eyes, yeah
               Lam          Sol
Don't wanna wake up and feel insecure
Do
I wanna sing, I wanna dance
Sol                               Fa
I wanna feel love inside my hands again
           Lam      Sol
I just wanna feel beautiful

Lam
Oh-oh-oh-oh, I-
Sol
Oh-oh-oh-oh, I-
Fa                 Lam         Sol      Do
Oh-oh-oh, I just wanna feel beautiful

               Lam                     Sol
I'll wear my sweatpants on Thursday
                       Fa
And I'll drink soft drink from a can
               Lam      Sol
I'll build my own independence
                 Fa
I don't always need a man
               Lam
You know sometimes I feel lonely
                Sol
Could do with the company
           Fa
Oh, I get high when I'm down
                        Fa
But you know that's alright with me
               Lam         Sol
So I will do nothing on Thursday
