Solm  Sib Reb Fa
Solm  Sib Reb

Solm                      Sib
Once I was seven years old
              Reb
my momma told me
                                          Fa
go make yourself some friends or you'll be lonely Solm                      Sib          Reb
once I was seven years old

Solm            Fa   Sib
It was a big big world
                                  Reb
but we thought we were bigger

Pushing each other to the limits
         Fa                   Solm
we were learning quicker
           Fa      Sib
By eleven smoking herb
                                Reb
and drinking burning liquor
                                             Fa
Never rich so we were out to make that steady figure

Solm                Fa     Sib
Once I was eleven years old
              Reb
my daddy told me
                                       Fa
go get yourself a wife or you'll be lonely Solm                Fa     Sib    Reb
Once I was eleven years old

Solm            Fa    Sib
I always have that dream
                           Reb
like my Daddy before me

So I started writing songs
          Fa                Solm
I started writing stories
                      Fa  Sib
Something about that glory
                                 Reb
just always seemed to bore me

Cause only those I really love
          Fa
will ever really know me

Solm                Fa     Sib
Once I was twenty years old
             Reb
my story got told
                                         Fa
before the morning sun, when life was lonely

Solm           Fa  Sib
  I only see my goals
                                 Reb

I don't believe in failure

Cause I know the smallest voices
they can make it major Fa   Sib                          Reb
I got my boys with me at least those in favor and if we don´t meet before I leave

         Fa
I hope I see you later

Solm                Fa     Sib
             Reb
my story got told

I was writing about everything
        Fa
I saw before me

Soon we´ll be 30 years old
                    Reb
our songs have been sold we've traveled around the world

                  Fa
and we´re still roaming

Solm                             Sib
I´m still learning about life
                                  Reb
my woman brought children for me

so I can sing them all my songs
          Fa
and I can tell them stories Solm
  Most of my boys are with me Sib                               Reb some are still out seeking glory

And some I had to leave behind
            Sib/Re
my brother, I´m still sorry

Reb                 Fa     Solm
Soon I´ll be sixty years old
                    Fa
my daddy got sixty-one Sib/Re
remember life and then your life becomes a better one

Reb
  I made a man so happy
Fa               Solm
when I wrote a letter once Re4                       Re
I hope my children come and visit once or twice a month

Soon I´ll be sixty years old
                           Fa
will I think the world is cold
                         Sib/Re
or will I have a lot of children who can warm me
