Everything changes - Take That

```
Re7+ Sol Mim La x2

               Re7+            Sol                Mim  La
 You know that everything, everything changes but you
               Re7+            Sol                Mim  La
 You know that everything, everything changes but you

La      Mim               Sol           Re7+
 We've said goodbye, the taxi cab is waiting
La    Mim                 Sol              Re7+          Sim
 Now don't you cry, just one more kiss before I have to go
     Do#m7           Sim        Do#m7
 Hey girl I know the situation changed
Sim      Do#m7           Sol                    La
 And so much is new but something in my life remains the same cos

 Re7+                  Sol
 Everything changes but you
         Mim
 We're a thousand miles apart
         La
 But you know I love you
 Re7+                  Sol
 Everything changes but you
          Mim
 You know everyhting single day
         La
 I'll be thinking about you

La    Mim                   Sol                        Re7+
 The rumors are true, you know that there've been others
La     Mim          Sol             Re7+             Sim
 What can I do, I tell you baby they don't mean a thing
     Do#m7              Sim              Do#m7
 Now girl don't go and throw our love away
Sim    Do#m7         Sol                    La
 I'll be home soon back in your arms to hear you say that

Re7+                  Sol
 Everything changes but you
         Mim
 We're a thousand miles apart
         La
 But you know I love you
 Re7+                  Sol
 Everything changes but you
          Mim
 You know everyhting single day
         La
 I'll be thinking about you
       Re7+            Sol                  Mim  La
 Cause everything, everything changes but you
               Re7+            Sol                  Mim  La
 You know that everything, everything changes but you

Fa7+                       Do7+                     Fa7+
 Though everything changes around us (Baby don't you cry)
                           Sim
 We will be the same as before, forever more
