It takes a fool to remain sane - The Ark

Solm7                          Lam7
Whatever happened to the funky race?
Sib                   Do
A generation lost in pace,
Solm7               Lam7
Wasn't life supposed to be more than this?
Sib                   Do
In this kiss I'll change your bore for my bliss
       Solm7                              Lam7
Let go of my hand and it will slip out in the sand
Sib                                 Do
if you don't give me the chance to break down the walls of attituded
Solm7           Lam7
I ask nothing of you
Sib                   Do not even your gratitude
    Sib                                                          Do
And if you think I'm corny, then it will not make me sorry
Rem                               Fa
it's your right to laugh at me
          Sib                   Do and in turn, that's  my  opportunity
Rem    Fa
to feel brave
              Sib
Because it takes a fool to remain sane
Do              Rem            Fa
Oh It takes a fool to remain sane
Sib
Oh It takes a fool to remain sane
Do           Rem               Fa
Oh let me a small ridicule in shame.

Solm7                                          Lam7
Every morning I would see her getting off the bus the Sib                                               Do picture never drops it's like a multicoloured snapshot
Solm7                   Lam7
stuck in my brain it kept me sane
    Sib                             Do
for a  couple of years as it drenched my fears Solm7                                  Lam7
of becoming like the others who become unhappy mothers
  Sib                               Do
and fathers of unhappy kids, and why is that?
  Sib                                 Do
'Cause they've forgotten how to play
              Rem                  Fa
oh maybe they're afraid to feel ashamed
    Sib                    Do
to seem strange to seem insane Rem
to gain weight, to seem gay
Fa
I tell you this:
Sib
That it takes a fool to remain sane
 Do        Rem                     Fa
It takes a  fool to remain sane
            Sib
It takes a fool to remain sane
Do        Rem                     Fa
In this world all covered up in shame
                        Sib
Oh, take it to the stage

Oh It takes a fool to remain sane
Do        Rem                    Fa
