Illusion - Dua Lipa

Re#m                  Si
 I been known to miss a red flag
Sol#m                Mi
 I been known to put my lover on a pedestal
Re#m                      Si
 In the end, those things just don't last
Sol#m                 La#7
 And it's time I take my rose-colored glasses off
Re#m
 I already know your type,
Si7+
 tellin' me the things I like
Sol#m                          Mi7+
 Tryin' make me yours for life, takin' me for a ride
Re#m
 I already know your type,
Si7+
 think you can play your cards right
Re#m                      Re#7
 Don't you know I could do this dance all night?

Re#m      Do#   Si
Ooh, what you do-in'?
La#m   Sol#m                         Fa#   Mi
 Don't know who you think that you're confusin'
            Re#m    Do#  Si
I be like, "Ooh, it's amu-sin'"
    La#m  Sol#m               Fa#  Mi
You think I'm gonna fall for an illusion...

Re#m                        Si
 Was a time when that shit might have worked
Sol#m
 Was a time
       Mi
when I just threw a match and let it burn
Re#m                    Si
 Now I'm grown, I know what I deserve
Sol#m
I still like dancin'
     La#7
with the lessons I already learned
Re#m
 I already know your type,
