Fireflies ft U2 - Martin Garrix

Mim9    Sol7+    Si4    Re9
Mim9    Sol7+    La

      Mim9           Sol7+
I can feel all I can know
      Si4           Re9
I can feel the undertone
      Mim9           Sol7+
I can hear the river flow
         La
Laughing at us as we go
            Mim9        Sol7+
The present and the vanishing
      Si4          Re9
The divine in everything
       Mim9             Sol7+
In the air, your summer dress
            La
Has left me floating
                      Mim9
But I can never keep a secret
Sol7+                 Sim
Everything is always known
Re                      Mim9
Nothing here is ever hidden
       Sol7+                 La
'Cause everything is always shown
                    Mim9
I can never keep a secret
  Sol7+                  Sim
I don't know why I even try
      Re                        Mim9
We're looking through a sky of mirrors
   Sol             La
To see ourselves tonight
                      Mim9     Sol7+
'Cause you and I are fireflies
             Sim         Re
Born for the summer skies
                          Mim9        Sol7+
The light that's in each other's eyes
La
Fireflies
               Mim9     Sol7+
You and I are fireflies
                     Sim          Re
Forgetting that the sun will rise
                      Mim9       Sol7+
I'll meet you in the air tonight
La
Fireflies...
Mim    Sol    Sim    Re    Mim    Sol
La
Fireflies...

Mim    Sol    Sim    Re    Mim    Sol    La

       Mim9            Sol7+
We can hurt, or we can mend
     Sim         Re9
Terrorize or transcend
     Mim9           Sol7+
No beginning and no end
               La
Yeah, we'll survive

```
             Mim9            Sol
Like falling angels bound to Earth
       Sim                Re9
Voices sing for all their worth
      Mim                Sol
All I need is a pen that works
           La
But it's a story without words
           Mim9              Sol
Of how the night will set us free
        Sim              Re9
Take us where we need to be
             Mim9           Sol
Your winking eyes are all I need
         La4
To feel alive

    La                 Mim9
But I can never keep a secret
Sol                   Sim
Everything is always known
Re                    Mim9
Nothing here is ever hidden
       Sol                  La
'Cause everything is always shown
                   Mim9
I can never keep a secret
  Sol                    Sim
I don't know why I even try
      Re                        Mim
We're looking through a sky of mirrors
   Sol             La
To see ourselves tonight

                      Mim9     Sol7+
'Cause you and I are fireflies
             Sim         Re
Born for the summer skies
                          Mim9        Sol7+
The light that's in each other's eyes
La
Fireflies
              Mim9     Sol7+
You and I are fireflies
                     Sim          Re
Forgetting that the sun will rise
