

Against the tide - Milow

Capotasto al I tasto

Do                   Mim                   Re
Ahh ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah 2volte

Do   Sol
If you ever lost your philosophy
Re   Mim
Water's rising up from the sand
Lam                                       Sol                                       Re
You just keep on drifting away from land
Do                                       Sol                                       Re                                       Mim
If you ever lost your horizon you can't even find the sun
Lam                                       Sol                                       Re
And you just keep on staring until the damage is done

          Mim                   Re                                       Do                                       Sol
Out of time out of fight tracing circles that don't feel right

          Mim                   Re
Out of time out of fight

                                  Do                                       Sol
At least we know that at least we tried

          Re   Do
At least we tried we're swimming against the tide

Do                   Mim                   Re
Ahh ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah 2volte

Do   Sol
If you're ever lost on a tightrope
Re   Mim
Running on the tip of your toes
Lam                                       Sol                                       Re
You keep on getting higher but never close
Do                                       Sol                                       Re                                       Mim
And if you're ever lost in the darkness you don't know where to begin
Lam                                       Sol                                       Re
You need to change you wanna live again

          Mim                   Re                                       Do                                       Sol
Out of time out of fight tracing circles that don't feel right

          Mim                   Re
Out of time out of fight

                                  Do                                       Sol
At least we know that at least we tried

          Re   Do
At least we tried we're swimming against the tide

Do                   Mim                   Re
Ahh ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah 2 volte

Sol
The only time you're really lost
          Re   Mim                   Do
Is when you're standing still at any cost ohhh ohhhh

          Mim                   Re                                       Do                                       Sol
Out of time out of fight tracing circles that don't feel right

          Mim                   Re
Out of time out of fight

                                  Do                                       Sol
At least we know that at least we tried

          Mim                   Re
Night and day, day and night

          Do   Sol                                       Re
At least we know that at least we tried at least we tried

                                  Do                                       Mim                                       Re
We're swimming against the tide ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah

          Do   Sol
We're swimming against the tide
