Lam                           Si/La
 D-D-D-did you see the frightened ones?
Lam                          Si/La
 D-D-D-did you hear the falling bombs?
Lam                      Si/La
 D-D-D-did you ever wonder
       Lam                 La7
Why we had to run for shelter
            Re/La             La
When the promise of a brave new world
         Re/La       Sim               Re
Unfurled beneath a clear blue sky?
