

I Believe - R.E.M.

Fa

Fa

When I was young and full of grace

Fa

and spirited - a rattlesnake

Fa

When I was young and fever fell

Fa

My spirit, I will not tell

Sib

Solm

You're on your honor not to tell

Fa

I believe in coyotes and time as an abstract

Fa

Sib

Explain the change, the difference between

Solm

Do

What you want and what you need, there's the key

Lam

Your adventure for today, what do you do

Sib

Do

Between the horns of the day?

Solm

my shirt is wearing thin

Sib

And change is what I believe in

Fa

When I was young and give and take

Fa

And foolish said my fool awake

Fa

When I was young and fever fell

Fa

My spirit, I will not tell

Sib

Solm

You're on your honor, on your honor

Fa

Trust in your calling, make sure your calling's true

Sib

Solm

Think of others, the others think of you

Do

Lam

Silly rule: golden words make practice, practice makes perfect

Sib

Perfect is a fault, and fault lines change
