When my love said to me
        Do   Sol              Re
Meet me down by the gallow tree
         Do       Sol  Re
For it's sad news I bring
               Sol7sus4    Sol                  Re
About this old town  and all that it's offering
         Do9   Sol Re
Some say troubles abound
         Do9              Sol                 Re
Some day soon they're gonna pull the old town down
              Sol      Re
One day we'll return here
         Do       Sol            Re
When the Belfast Child sings again

Brothers, sisters, where are you now?
     Do9       Sol                  Re
As I look for you right through the crowd
       Do9    Sol     Re
All my life here I've spent
        Sol7sus4            Sol                       Re
With my faith in God, the Church, and the Government
         Do9   Sol Re
Some say troubles abound
         Do9              Sol                 Re
Some day soon they're gonna pull the old town down
              Sol      Re
One day we'll return here

So come back Billy, won't you come on home?
          Do9 Sol                            Re
Come back Mary,  you've been away so long
               Do9 Sol                       Re
The streets are empty, and your mother's gone
              Do9  Sol                       Re
The girls are crying, it's been, oh, so long
                 Do9   Sol                   Re
And your father's calling, come on home
                 Do9 Sol                     Re
Won't you come on home?  Come on home

Oh come on people,   you've been gone a while
               Do9  Sol                              Re
And the war is raging, through the Emerald Isle
                 Do9     Sol                         Re
That's flesh and blood man, that's flesh and blood
                  Do9 Sol                            Re
All the girls are crying but all's not lost
                Do9 Sol                              Re
The streets are empty, the streets are cold
                  Do9 Sol                            Re
Won't you come on home?  Won't you come on home
