Sol Re La4

Sol Re
Tears on your face, climb back into your eyes
La4
A little less on your nerves, and a little more on your mind
Sol Re
Make up before we fight, dream before we sleep
La4
Slowly getting better than we've ever been

Sol Re
Things we should have never said
La4
Just crawl right back into our heads
Sol Re
Hear you say to me
La4
"Leave don't please"

Sol Re
I wish we could break up in reverse
La4
Every night would get better instead of getting worse
Sol Re
I'd watch you slowly slip back into my hands
La4
Say goodbye to me in the beginning

Sim La/Do# Re
And love me in the end
Mim
And love me in the end
Oh-oh, oh-oh-oh

Sol Re
You'd be on your way back from Massachusetts
La4
Bet it breaks the hearts of stars when we use 'em as excuses
Sol Re
And wish upon a stranger, even though we know it's useless
La4
'Cause all I want's the night back when your best friend introduced us

Sol Re
I wish we could break up in reverse
La4
Every night would get better instead of getting worse
