U2 - All because of you

```
Mi Sol Re  Sol La Sol La 4v

Mi            Re        La
I was born a child of grace
Mi             Re        La
Nothing else about the place
Mi                           Re         La
Everything was ugly but your beautiful face
       La            Re      Sol
And it left me no illusions
  Mi              Re            La
I saw you in the curve of the moon
        Mi            Re       La
In the shadow cast across my room
Mi            Re      La
You heard me, in my tune
     La               Re     Sol
When I just heard confusion
Re           La
All because of you
Re           La
All because of you
Re           La
All because of you
  Mi Sol Re  Sol La Sol La
I am.
  Mi Sol Re  Sol La Sol La
I am.
  Mi Sol Re  Sol La Sol La  x2
  Mi                 Re       La
I like the sound of my own voice
  Mi                 Re      La
I didn't give anyone else a choice
   Mi         Re     La
An intellectual tortoise
La                Re       Sol
Racing with your bullet train
      Mi                  Re           La
Some people get squashed crossing the tracks
     Mi                     Re        La
Some people got high rises on their backs
Mi                         Re         La
I'm not broke but you can see the cracks
La               Re        Sol
You can make me perfect again
Re           La
All because of you
Re           La

I just arrived, I'm at the door
       Mi                 Re       La
Of the place I started out from
