U2 - Electrical storm

Fa#m  La   Si
Fa#m         La      Si           Fa#m
 The sea it swells like a sore head
                    La     Si
and the night it is aching Fa#m         La        Si                  Fa#m
 Two lovers lie with no sheets on their bed
                  La       Si
and the day it is breaking Fa#m       La       Si           Fa#m
 On rainy days we go swimming out La         Si           Fa#m on rainy days, swimming in the sound
          La       Si
 On rainy days we go swimming out
Re             Mi  La         Do#m
 You're in my mind all the time
              Re
I know that's not enough Mi
if the sky can crack Do#m
there must be some way back
             Re
for love and only love
Fa#m  La   Si
Fa#m              La       Si
 Car alarm won't let you back to sleep
Fa#m                La            Si          Fa#m you're kept awake dreaming someone else's dream
                La           Si
coffee is cold, but it will get you through Fa#m                 La       Si compromise, that's nothing new to you Fa#m        La                 Si          Fa#m let's see colours that have never been seen La           Si          Re
