U2 - One tree hill

Do
 Do Do Fa  Fa
 Do Do Do  Do
 Do Do Fa  Fa
 Sib  Fa  Do  Do
Do                          Fa
  We turn away to face the cold, enduring chill
       Sib            Fa
As the day begs the night
    Do
for mercy, love
Do                                Fa
  The sun so bright it leaves no shadows, only scars
Sib          Fa
Carved into stone
       Do
On the face of it
Do                          Fa
  The moon is up and over One Tree Hill
           Sib     Fa             Do
We see the sun go down in your eyes
               Sib    Fa        Do
You run like a river, on like the sea
               Sib   Fa            Do
You run like a river runs to the sea
Do                                Fa
  And in the world a heart of darkness, a fire-zone
      Sib                Fa
Where poets speak their heart
     Do
Then bleed for it
Do                          Fa
  Jara sang, his song a weapon, in the hands of one
             Sib           Fa
You know his blood still cries
         Do
From the ground
               Sib    Fa        Do
It runs like a river runs to the sea
               Sib   Fa        Do
It runs like a river to the sea
Do
 Do Do Fa  Fa
 Do Do Do  Do
 Do Do Fa  Fa

Do                             Fa
  I don't believe in painted roses or bleeding hearts
      Sib               Fa            Do
While bullets rape the night of the merciful
Do
  I'll see you again
         Fa
When the stars fall from the sky
        Sib               Fa
And the moon has turned red
Over One Tree Hill
              Sib   Fa         Do
We run like a river runs to the sea
              Sib   Fa      Do
We run like a river to the sea
              Sib      Fa
And when it's raining

        Do
Raining hard
                Sib        Fa
That's when the rain will
         Do
Break the heart
Sib       Fa
Raining, rainin' in the heart,
Do
rainin' in your heart,
Sib       Fa
Raining, rain into your heart,
Do
rainin', rainin',    rainin'
Sib                Fa
   Rain into your heart,
Do
rainin'  woo!
Sib    Fa    Do
Do          Fa      Sib  Fa     Do
Oh, great ocean. Oh, great sea.
Do           Fa      Sib  Fa      Do
Run to the ocean. Run to the sea.
