Sol                Do                          Re
  From father to son, the blood runs thin, ooohhh
        La                   Fa                    Fa
see the faces frozen still   against the wind
Sol                  Do
  The seam is split
                     Sol
The coal-face cracked
                   Do
The lines are long
                     Sol
There's no going back
                      Do
Through hands of steel
                   Sol
And heart of stone
               Do
Our labour day
              Re
Has come and gone
     La
They leave me holdin' on
   Fa
In Red Hill Town
         Fa/Do
See the lights go down on
Sol
  Hanging on
Re                            Fa
  You're all that's left to hold on to
Do
  I'm still waiting
Sol
  I'm hanging on
Re                            Fa           Fa
  You're all that's left to hold on to.
Sol                  Do
  The glass is cut
                   Sol
The bottle run dry
                   Do
Our love runs cold
                             Sol
In the caverns of the night
                      Do
We're wounded by fear
                 Sol
Injured in doubt
              Do
I can lose myself
                      Re
You I can't live without
          La
Yeah, you keep me holdin' on
   Fa
         Fa
Sol
  Hanging on

On to
 We scorch the earth
                    Sol
Set fire to the sky
                      Do
And we stooped so low
                 Sol
To reach so high
               Do
A link is lost
                 Sol
The chain undone
                Do
We wait all day
              Re
For night to come
       Lam           Fa             Fa
And it comes like a hunter child
Sol
  I'm hanging on

  Lights go down on Red Hill
